

University College of Arts

Course Outcome

Course Specific Outcome.

I B. Com. and BBM

After the successful completion of the course, our Students become competent enough to

1. Grasp and Imbibe the Knowledge of various concepts in financial accounting.
2. Develop a practical approach towards the creation and maintenance of accounts.
3. To apply economic Reasoning and viable solutions to the problems in business
4. Tackle CA CS and various competitive exams.
5. Understand handle the computerized business environment
6. Understand the working of E – commerce
7. To create and maintain their own website
8. To understand the techniques of costing.
9. Know the fundamentals of banking.
10. To know about Auditing and Taxation in India.
11. To help the students for developing a new approach towards economy and market.

Bachelor of Arts (B.A)

(HEP,HES, HEK, JKP, Eng SP, Jung, L. Psy.J)

Bachelor of Arts graduate from University College of Arts will be in a position to:

1. Critically think about art, literature, society and cultural to become a responsible individual with social commitment.
2. Imbibe humanitarian values, Patriotism, leadership skills and an orientation to serve mankind.
3. Have a strong determination to strive for world peace and relieving the prejudius on the basis of caste, religion, race or languages.
4. Keep alive the tenets of liberty, equality and fraternity for a peaceful present and a better tomorrow..
5. To understand the social, political historical and cultural aspects of the world in general and of India in particular..
6. Tack various competitive examinations and become servants of civic society.

B. A. (English)

1. Basic knowledge of English as a language
2. The ability to relate the broad perspectives of literature to human society
3. Skills in spoken and written communication.
4. The ability to understand the classical and modern literary texts in different genres. in the back drop of social, political, cultural, thematic, humanitarian and Literary contexts.
5. The ability to understand human emotions and behavior though the frameworks offered through different literary texts.

B.A (Economics)

B. A graduate in Economics will be able to:

1. Understand the different patterns of micro and macro economics theories and policies.
2. Understand degrees of competitions on pricing and market and their outcome.
3. To develop research orientation in the field of Economics
4. To understand the policies of the Government with regard to Economics and Market.
6. To update, assess and evaluate economical knowledge for a better tomorrow.

B. A. (Sociology)

B. A Sociology graduate from our college will be able to:

1. Make acquaintance with social transactions, social relations, Social formations, Social control, social values and culture.
- 2 To understand different social Structures and societies in India societies in India.
3. Develop research Competency in Sociology.
4. Understand social issues and problems and find amicable solutions.
5. Follow new streams of thought and theories by Social, thinkers

B. A. (Kannada)

A graduates of BA. Kannada from our college will be able to:

1. Develop a comprehensive understanding of the theories and practise of languages.
2. Demonstrate critical skills and understand the need to preserve native culture through language.
3. Appreciate and preserve folk arts and literature.
4. Articulate and follow a writing based career.
5. Communicate and build relations through optimum use of language skills.
6. Develop a study based and research oriented bint of mind.
7. Rise from the local level to the global level through language skills.

B.A. Journalism.

A B.A Journalism graduate from our college can:

1. Bridge media and society for a better future.
2. Become a successful and able practitioner in the fields of print and electronic media.
3. Develop or publish a newspaper and do news reading.
4. Manage to do reporting, editing and anchoring for print and electronic media.
5. Handle novel concepts like photo journalism and Creative writing
6. widen the options through the ability to know of understand advertising and public relations.
7. Develop competency over media law, economy and polity..

B.A Political science

A B.A Political Science Graduate from our college will be able to:

1. Distinguish and analyze different political Systems across the world.
2. Study national and international political affairs.
3. Have to face the competitive examinations.
4. Understand the mechanism of government, its functions, duties and responsibilities
5. Critically evaluate different leaderships.
6. Create knowledge about the law and Constitution of India..

BA. (Psychology)

A B. A. graduate in psychology from our college will be able to:

1. Understand and analyze human behavior
2. Provide enough guidance for stress management.
3. Measure attitude, aptitude and interest skills.
4. Understand the techniques and processes of counselling
5. Understand mental health and disorders.

B. A. (History)

ABA graduate in History from our college can

1. Understand the historical contexts of India and the world and the nuances of history through cultural religious and administrative frameworks obtained through history
2. Understand the pastness of the past in the present to have a better future.
3. Understand the socio - political, religious and economic histories of different societies across the world.
4. Study historical evidences and relate them to the respective historical period to have a better sense of history.
5. Develop interests in activities related to the Study of history and archaeology
6. Understand the legacy richness of culture and tradition of the land through a study of history
7. Face different competitive examinations.

B. A. (Library Science)

A BA graduate in library Science from our college can:

1. Identify sort and operate the available Sources in a library to support academic activities.
2. Categorize and systematize the repositories in a library for easy accessibility of the Stakeholders.
3. Support research activities.
4. Identify new vistas of knowledge and make them readily available.
5. Induce interests in others to do and understand the values of research.

III. BBM

A BBM graduate from our college will be

1. Able to manage situations in the corporate Sectors.
2. In a position to develop functional and general management skills.
3. Able to inculcate a global mindset.
4. Able to evaluate different business issues and situations and manage them efficiently
5. Build, demonstrate and manage leadership skills and team work.
6. Able to communicate effectively and manage efficiently
7. In a position to analyze socio - political economic environment in business organizations.