

A Report on Special Lecture and Interactive Session, organised by PG Dept. of Mass Communication and Journalism in association with Dept. of Journalism, University College of Arts, on 30th January 2020.

TUMKUR UNIVERSITY
PG DEPT. OF MASS COMMUNICATION & JOURNALISM
In association with
DEPARTMENT OF JOURNALISM
UNIVERSITY COLLEGE OF ARTS
Organize
SPECIAL LECTURES & INTERACTIVE SESSION

Inauguration
Prof. Y. S. Siddegowda
Hon'ble Vice Chancellor, Tumkur University

Special Lectures by
Sri K. R. Balasubramanyam
Senior Editor, The Economic Times, Bangalore
Topic: Business Journalism: Scope and Trends

Dr. Bhargavi D. Hemmige
Associate Professor and Head
Department of Media Studies, CMS,
Jain (Deemed to be University), Bangalore
Topic: M. K. Gandhi as a Journalist

30 January 2020, 10-30 am
Venue: Sri M Visveswaraya Auditorium
Tumkur University

YOU ARE CORDIALLY INVITED

Padmanabha K.V. Coordinator, MA-MCJ	K. Ramachandrappa Principal, UCA	Prof. K. N. Ganganaik Registrar, Tumkur University
---	--	--

PG Dept. of Mass Communication and Journalism in association with Dept. of Journalism, University College of Arts conducted a Special Lecture and Interactive session at Sri Visvesvaraya Auditorium on January 30, 2020 to commemorate the death anniversary of Mahatma Gandhiji.

Bhargavi D Hemmige, Associate professor and Head, Mass Media Studies, CMS, Jain University, Bengaluru, gave a special lecture on “M K Gandhi as a journalist”. She asserted that Gandhi was never involved in the India’s partition and suggested that youth verify to develop an objective outlook on Gandhi.

K R Balasubramanyam, Senior editor of The Economic Times, Bangalore delivered a lecture on business journalism. The VC prof. Y S Siddegowda, Registrar K S Ganga Naik, Principal Ramachandrappa and co-ordinator Padmanabha K V were present.

Newspaper clippings of Special Lecture and Interaction Session organised by PG Dept. of Journalism and Mass Communication in association with Dept. of Journalism, University College of Arts, on 30th January 2020.